Mayor's Foreword

Can you believe it's Spring? Christmas seems a long time ago now and we're just about to see British Summer time begin, with the long summer days ahead of us.

Last year was a lot of fun with all the various events in the town. I started my Mayoral year with a Community Picnic on the Village Green on an incredibly hot day, with games, activities and refreshments, this was followed by the Teddy Bears' picnic, a meal and various other events and someone told me that Santa even dropped in to the town just before Christmas.

During the year I've had the privilege of attending many invitations from surrounding towns and villages and along with the Deputy Mayor Cllr Ken Wattingham, we have been positively promoting all the good things about Houghton Regis. The one thing that comes up time and time again whilst talking to other towns is the strong sense of "community" and the many volunteer run groups and clubs that Houghton Regis has to offer, and I'm often asked "How does Houghton Regis do it?". My answer is, because we have a lot of incredible residents, businesses and volunteers that care, plus a resilience and a determination to do things to support others.

Houghton Regis is a town to be proud of, and as it slowly grows, so will that sense of community develop even further.

The support I have received has been tremendous, allowing many items to be purchased to help the 3 local groups I chose at the beginning of my year. I can not thank everyone enough, but I would like to say a special thank you to the young people of the Houghton Regis Youth Council, who are always first to offer a hand at all the events, come up with wonderful ideas and work really hard in everything they do. It's been an absolute pleasure to get to know each one of them and to see them grow in confidence.

So what lies ahead? We have the May Fair, the Annual Meeting of the Town and of course Carnival in July plus the last couple of Mayoral events for my term.

I hope you all have a great rest of the year.

Cllr Jo Hillyard, Mayor 2017-18

The Neighbourhood Plan

Our town is going through some pretty major changes! The expansion that happened in the 1960's changed Houghton Regis from a small village into a town, but a town that was more like a large village. The changes currently proposed will change it into a large town. In order to cope and prosper, many other things will need to change, and it is only fair and right that the people most affected—those who live and/or work in the town—should have a say in those changes.

Fortunately, the government put in place a mechanism to empower local communities in order to have just such a say: The neighbourhood plan.

Neighbourhood planning provides a powerful set of tools for local people to ensure that they get the right types of development for their community.

Some time ago our town council decided that we needed one and hired a consultant, Martin Small, to begin the process. Martin did a lot of research and produced a sample document of what a plan might look like. The next step was to gather a group of local residents to oversee the remaining work, and so an open meeting was held at the council offices. Sadly, the turnout for such an important discussion was very low, however enough people attended for a steering group to be formed and the work began. The task is quite daunting and covers a wide range of issues. To help us tackle it, the steering group divided the work into 6 areas: Business and Employment; Open Spaces and Leisure; Education; The Town Centre; Housing; and Heritage. One of the group members was placed in charge of each area, tasked with talking to the community and drawing up an initial description of what we would like to see in that area. The next step will be to blend those desires into a comprehensive whole.

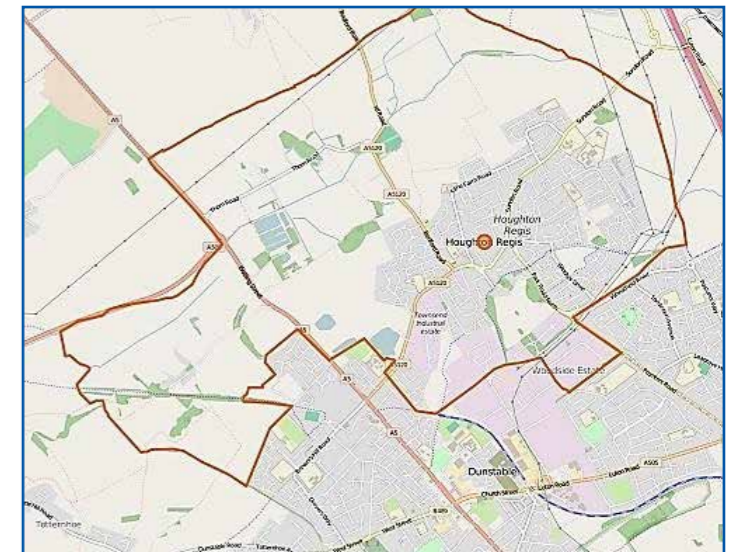

Our initial steps included a survey which was tested at the Santa's Grotto event and will soon be available for people to make further responses to online. Initial feedback was very useful, and we hope many of you will take the 10-15 minutes needed to fill it out. We will be publicising how to access the survey as soon as it is ready.

Once the steering group completes its work and produces a draft plan there is a clear legal process that must be followed to get it adopted, including its acceptance by the town council, a mandatory consultation with certain key parties, and a review by Central Beds Council. The final step will be a public vote where you will get one last chance to say yea or nay to the plan.

The steering group are currently trying to get together focus groups for each of the six areas, to meet over the next few weeks. This is an open process and needs people to get involved (one of the biggest dangers to getting a plan adopted is failure to show local involvement). We know there are many people out there in our community who have strong opinions and ideas about the town, now is the time to come forward and have a positive impact on a document that will give our desires a legal standing in future developments in our town. If you are interested, please contact Debbie Marsh, Corporate Services Manager, at the council offices (debbie.marsh@houghtonregis.org.uk) letting her know which areas you are concerned about and how to contact you. She will make sure that the appropriate people keep you informed about focus group meetings.

Christine Clavey, Treasurer, Business and Employment Working Group,

February 2018 update on our planned Houghton Regis flood storage area

We are working in partnership with Luton Borough Council to deliver a flood alleviation scheme, which will reduce the flood risk to over 500 properties in Luton. These properties experience flooding from the River Lee at times of high rainfall. Flooding from the River Lee and its tributaries has been recorded many times, particularly where the Houghton Brook joins the River Lee around Toddington Road.

We held a public drop-in at the end of 2017 in Houghton Regis to share information on our proposed flood alleviation scheme for Luton. We thank the local residents for their interest in the scheme and for coming along to find out more.

As part of the scheme, a flood storage area (FSA) will be built on land beside Houghton Regis, next to the M1 motorway. We will be submitting a planning application for the FSA to Central Bedfordshire Council within the next few months. We will continue to update residents of our progress. Once the planning application has been registered, all the supporting documents will be accessible on the Council's website at: www.centralbedfordshire.gov.uk/planning/flooding/houghton-regis.aspx The map below shows the approximate location of the planned FSA. If you have any questions about the scheme, you can email us at HNL-PSO@environment-agency.gov.uk or write to The Houghton Regis FSA, Environment Agency, Alchemy Offices, Bessemer Road, Welwyn Garden City, Herts, AL7 1HE.

New Staff Join The Team

Houghton Regis Town Council has appointed two new members to its team. Louise Senior to the new position of Head of Democratic Services and Matthew Oliver as Office Apprentice. The Head of Democratic Services role holds the responsibility of Council's office manager, ensuring the smooth running of the office and providing the administration around council meetings. Louise has a wealth of experience in this area having previously worked in various local authority run schools across Luton. Louise joined the council in December. Louise said, "I am looking forward to working within the local community and have received a wonderful welcome from all the staff and councillors at the council offices"

The Office Apprentice role started in November with Matthew bringing great skills to a diverse role supporting the administration of the Town Council. Matthew has previously worked at Greggs and spent time at South Beds Golf Club and Active Luton during his work experience. Matthew is enjoying his role and has been working in a variety of different areas within the council, as well as being the main contact for bookings of the Community Centre.

Matthew Oliver – Office Apprentice

The staff and councillors are enjoying working alongside both Louise and Matthew and hope you all will enjoy meeting them at our local events and activities.

Spotlight on the Community

1. How long has the group been running?

The Society has been running since October 2012, it started with nine people who were passionate about Heritage. The Society was set up with the help of Jan Cooper who gave us advice and encouragement. Initially David Hill saw the wonderful archive of pictures that Pat Lovering had and wanted a way to ensure these would be kept for the current and future generations of the town. The Society developed to where it is today.

2. How many members do you have to date?

We have on the books some sixty members but the numbers who attend public meetings vary.

3. How do you think the group is received within the community?

We know that HRHS is in the forefront of heritage in the local community. People love looking at old pictures and talking about old times when the town was just a village. Our website www.hrhs.org.uk has many interesting pages including old local directories.

4. How do residents/community join the group?

Joining is easy, look at our website, attend one of our meetings, or send us an email.

5. Is the group involved in any projects?

The Society has been involved with the heritage side of the Houghton Hall Park Renaissance Project. It has supplied images and information for the various interactive displays in the Visitor Centre. It currently has two display cabinets one of which has a collection of local finds. We have also had meetings with Central Bedfordshire Council regarding the Red House, as we wish to use part of this building eventually as our Base when its restoration is complete.

6. Have you any exciting plans for the group this year?

We are planning to have stands at the May Fayre and Carnival this year and are at present developing an event on the Village Green for Remembrance Sunday.

Houghton Regis Central development

The tender process has started!

On Tuesday, 19th December we commenced the contractor tendering process that will lead to the appointment of a developer for the Scheme. The first step is to identify those companies that have the capacity and relevant experience to take on a major development in a Town Centre that incorporates a Grade 2 Listed Building (the Red House). The decision to award a contract will be taken by the Council's Executive in August 2018.

Proposal for Whitbread PLC to use part of the HRC site as a temporary staff car park

Whitbread PLC are a major business located on the Houghton Hall Business Park. They are substantially extending their existing car park and have asked for the Council's help to use the Houghton Regis Central site as a temporary staff car park for six months, whilst the work to provide their new staff car park is carried out.

Whitbread are committed to the local area and are working closely with the Council to invest in business growth and expansion. As this is an opportunity to unlock investment, with a wider benefit for Houghton Regis and significant job creation, the council are keen to support them. Whitbread will pay for and undertake the works required to make the site fit for purpose as a temporary staff car park. Any works will be supportive of future HRC development works and will not impact on timescales or costs for HRC. The site will be staffed by Whitbread and used by their employees Monday to Friday. Using this space will mean that Whitbread staff will not need to use existing on street parking or public car parks.

Consideration has been given to the feasibility of a small number of these parking spaces being made available to the public. However, this has not proved possible as public car parks must comply with different regulations to private car parks. Applying these regulations would mean significant changes in the work and management of the car park and require an increase in costs for Whitbread that would be excessive for the relatively short period of time they require for the temporary car park.

Starting on site

As Whitbread will need to vacate the site by the end of July they are looking to start their preparatory works before the end of this month.

Whitbread's contribution to the Houghton Regis community

Whitbread understand the importance of the role that a business of its size can play in a local community. In recognition of that role and their commitment to the local area, they have decided to make a sum of money available to support local organisations active in the community, for the longer-term benefit of the residents of Houghton Regis. Further details in how they will manage this arrangement will be available in due course.
